My Job Search Strategy

Congrats on completing your Springboard course! You've put in a lot of hard work to get to this point, and you should be proud! The hard work is sure to continue as you take steps to land that fantastic new job. This doc will help kick off your initial meetings with your career coach and prepare you for a strategic job search. Good luck!

ME:
Name:: Irina Kim Email Address (the one you use for Springboard): irina.s.kim@gmail.com LinkedIn Profile URL: https://www.linkedin.com/in/irina-s-kim/ Springboard Career ML Track: advanced Career Coach: Joe Xiao

My Job Search Checklist

While the job search is not a linear process, the following checklist will help set you up for success as you partner with your coach to land that job!

Task	Details
WEEK 1
• Celebrate	• Going through an intensive Bootcamp is not easy, and you've crossed the finish line! Take some time to celebrate and relax so you'll feel refreshed for your job search. • Post your Springboard certificate on LinkedIn - express gratitude to those who have supported you and announce your job search.

• Understand Springboard's Expectations	• Read the Post-Completion Prep emails you will receive starting the day you get your program certificate (if eligible for the program) • Review the Coaching Call Policy.
• Explore the Career Dashboard	• Get familiar with your Career Dashboard. • Find the link to the Money-Back Guarantee terms and become familiar with the weekly, bi-weekly, and monthly requirements. • Read about identifying and avoiding job offer scams
• Select your coach	• Select one coach to work with during post-completion. • During your first calls, align with your coach on a recurring coaching call day and time and add this to your calendar. • Use this meeting agenda for all coaching calls.
• Fill out the worksheet	• Fill out this worksheet before your first coaching call. Your coach will review your responses to help you develop a personalized strategy.
MONTH 1
• Refine your Elevator Pitch	• Review your Elevator Pitch or "Why" with your coach to clearly market your personal brand on LinkedIn and during networking conversations and interviews.
• Refine application materials	• Review the updated resume submitted to your Job Search Toolkit (located on your dashboard) and have your coach grade it. Yes, again! • Review the updated LinkedIn profile submitted to your Job Search Toolkit and have your coach grade it. • Review a draft of your cover letter. • Create or refine a portfolio of your work - most important for design, software engineering, data analytics, and data science. • Create a list of references to provide prospective employers. Review the list with your coach to maximize effectiveness.
• Target companies of interest	• Review your Company & Title Research list. • Follow companies on LinkedIn or other social media platforms. • Reach out to employees for informational interviews.
• Track your activities	• Download the Springboard Job Tracker to track your applications and networking activities on your dashboard. !! Verify that these have been logged on your dashboard by the end of the week !!

	• Develop an additional method for staying organized beyond the dashboard (ex. Google Sheets, Huntr). • Track all the info and advice you will receive during informational interviews on a separate doc. This info will come in handy as you apply for jobs and prepare for interviews!
• Networking	• Join the Springboard Alumni Group on LinkedIn. • Check out Springboard's Community Events Calendar • Consider posting your Springboard Certificate of Completion on LinkedIn. • Send messages to your network, letting them know you've completed the program and are looking for full-time work. • Start sending out messages requesting informational interviews with industry professionals.
• Skill development	• Identify your skills gaps. • Identify at least one project or opportunity to keep your skills sharp right away. • Decide what immediate changes need to be made to your portfolio.
• Stay informed	• Keep up with the field - pick a podcast, YouTube Channel, blog post (or all 3!) to engage with.
Ongoing
• Career Coaching Prep	• Use this agenda or any other shared document with your coach to make the most of your career coaching calls.
• Divide and conquer!	• Set weekly goals for spending time in the four areas of the job search - applications, networking, skills development, and wellness.
• Apply for jobs	• Source and apply for jobs. Target applications for the position you're applying to - work with your coach on a targeted approach. • Follow up with recruiters immediately to let them know you've applied. Reiterate your interest in the company. • Learn about avoiding job search scams
• Networking	• Implement strategies to keep your contact "warm" • Show your commitment to the profession by documenting your learning journey on LinkedIn and other networking platforms
• Interviewing	• Use the interview prep checklist to conquer each interview! • Find at least one resource to practice interviewing on a weekly basis.

• LinkedIn profile development	• Refine your profile, add keywords, and make updates as you work on additional projects and build new skills.
• Get unstuck	• Review these ideas if you're feeling stuck in your job search. • Consider forming a Job Search Buddy Group to exchange ideas (and vent a little).
60 days into the Job Search
• Reassess your strategy	• With your career coach, reflect on your job search thus far - what's worked well? Any wins? Areas of improvement?

LOCATIONS: Where are you focusing your job search efforts? Which locations? We recommend that you only focus on a few, key metro locations.

San Diego
Bay Area
CA
Remote

Anywhere in US

JOB SEARCH CONFIDENCE: What is your job search confidence on a scale from 1-5, with 1 being "not confident at all" and 5 being "very confident." Explain your rating.

My rating:

- 1 ("not confident at all")
- 2
- 3
- 4
- 5 ("very confident")

Explanation: not confident enough due to switching roles/gears and being out of work for a while (going through personal emotional challenges)

MY GOAL: What is your desired outcome? Where do you want to be as a result of your job search? Be specific and detailed. Review your Job Search Strategy worksheet from the beginning of the course to see if anything has changed.

To leverage over 20 years of expertise in AI systems and technical leadership to secure a Principal Technical Program Manager (TPM) or AI Systems Architect role within the San Diego HealthTech or Genomics sector (e.g., Illumina, Align Technology). My objective is to bridge the gap between advanced R&D innovation and production-grade clinical scalability.

MY "WHY": Why are you pursuing this career? Revisit your Elevator Pitch and tweak as needed to make it compelling and clear.

I am driven by the challenge of translating complex, "zero-fault" AI architectures into real-world applications that improve human health. Having shipped high-impact vision IPs at global scale, I want to apply that same level of technical rigor to the life sciences, ensuring that cutting-edge AI models are not just research prototypes but reliable, deployed solutions.

SUPERPOWERS: What are the top 5 skills and strengths you bring to the job search? Think both technical and behavioral - previous experience, networking skills, portfolio, resilience, etc.

1. Technical Depth: Extensive background in AI Systems Architecture, computer vision, and real-time inference optimization.
2. Global Leadership: Proven ability to act as a "Technical Bridge" across international R&D hubs (Samsung, Qualcomm).
3. Cross-Functional Execution: Expertise in navigating the lifecycle from 0-to-1 product development to mass production.
4. Trilingual Communication: Professional fluency in English, Korean, and Russian to align diverse global stakeholders.
5. Resilience & Discipline: Certified fitness instructor and active golfer (17 handicap) with a high-performance mindset and commitment to continuous skill development.

AREAS OF IMPROVEMENT: What challenges do you anticipate facing in the job search? Think of challenges within your control to address - interview skills, previous experience, a network of professionals, language skills, Python, visual design skills, etc. - rather than those external to you (i.e., the job market/economy).

1. Industry Pivot: Transitioning deep semiconductor and mobile expertise into the specific regulatory and clinical validation frameworks of HealthTech.
2. TPM Positioning: Shifting my personal brand from "Hands-on Architect" to "Strategic Program Execution Leader" on LinkedIn.
3. Local Network Expansion: While I have a strong global network, I need to deepen my ties specifically within the San Diego Biotech and Genomics circles.

COACHING: Where are you looking for in a coaching relationship? It's important to communicate expectations early on to see what is feasible and realistic. Remember that this is your career, and you should attend every session ready to work, learn, and try new strategies! Let us know what you are looking for in a coach to help jumpstart your coaching and be sure to review the Career Call Policy.

I am looking for a high-accountability coaching relationship that provides strategic feedback on positioning my senior-level experience for TPM roles. I expect proactive brainstorming on navigating high-level internal referrals and refining my executive elevator pitch to resonate with HealthTech hiring managers

YOUR HEROES: Are there any bloggers, YouTubers, or people you follow on LinkedIn who you admire and have your ideal job? Identify 3 individuals and drop their LinkedIn URL or web/blog/social page here and a short description of why you admire them.
• Shalini Chander: Director of Product Management at Align Technology. I admire her ability to scale digital health platforms and her thought leadership in Agentic AI. • Sarah Perkins: Global Technology Leader. I admire her focus on product fundamentals and her candid approach to AI transformation leadership. • Vik Agarwal: Product Leader at Meta. I admire his insights into building safe AI experiences at scale and his emphasis on the "human" side of technical products.

My Career Call Agenda

Consider using this agenda to structure your career coaching calls. Simply copy and paste it for each call. You are expected to attend each coaching call ready to brainstorm ideas and work on your job search skills.

SUGGESTED COACHING AGENDA:
1	DATE: 4/27

2	My "Why": It's helpful to revisit this during each meeting. Ex: To land a full-time job as a software engineer so I can have more energy and time to spend with my family and not worry about our finances. I am still unorganized in my job search need to devote more time
3	POTENTIAL DISCUSSION TOPIC: Suggested discussion topic if there aren't major updates or items for discussion How to pivot How to network How to be more intentional
4	WINS: What went well / was a highlight since the last meeting? Better focus and understanding for job search Connected with Shalini Chander (1st degree) to discuss the TPM culture at Illumina.
5	UPDATES: Since the last meeting I worked on: This upcoming week (or two weeks) will be successful if: Completed the initial HealthTech-flavored resume draft and identified key target roles at Illumina and UCSD
6	ROADBLOCKS, CONCERNS & ITEMS NEEDING INPUT: Protip: Revisit your areas of improvement for this section Not enough time and focus commited Due to external factors (mental health) Need input on how to best highlight "Mass Production" experience as a benefit for clinical reliability.
7	GOALS: What will I work on before the next meeting? Use SMART goals for greater success. Reach out to two additional contacts in the San Diego HealthTech Slack community for informational interviews.
